Please indicate your volunteer interests.

1 = Strong preference; 2 = Secondary interest; 3 = willing to do occasionally; 4 = Not interested (You are welcome to volunteer in more than one area. Training will be provided.)

___ Gardens

Groom, maintain and install permanent and seasonal displays throughout The Elizabethan Gardens.

___ Greenhouse

Propagate, groom and maintain plants for sale to the public and for display in the gardens.

___ Carpentry

Use your carpentry skills to assist with a wide variety of projects.

___ Education

Lead educational programs or assist with set-up, registration and/or clean-up of educational activities. Educational programs may be geared toward specific groups such as children, adults, artists, nature lovers, etc.

___ Docent

Become a guide so you can talk to visitors and lead tours through the gardens. You may also wish to become an “expert” on one aspect of The Elizabethan Gardens, such as the history, plants, native plants, garden design, or the statuary, so you can talk to visitors or lead subject specific tours.

___ Plant Sales

Assist customers with the selection of plants for their home gardens. Work with greenhouse and gift shop staff to maintain plants for sale outside and on display in gift shop.

___ Special Events

Wide varieties of opportunities are available and may include holiday events; plant discount sales; house and garden tour days; anniversary celebrations, etc.

___ Gift Shop

Greet guests, stock merchandise, assist customers, and help keep the gift shop looking its best.

___ Volunteer Newsletter

Write articles, take photographs and other activities to keep volunteers informed of Garden activities.

___ Administration

Answer phones, enter data, and assist with mailings and other office activities.
